

People Whose Names You See Frequently In Your Newspapers

MRS. MARJORIE B. LOVE,
Who has just obtained a divorce from her husband,
Sidney C. Love, the New York broker.

SENATOR WILLIAM LORIMER, of Illinois, whose case will be reopened by the United States Senate.

FREDERICK D. UNDERWOOD, President of the Erie Railroad and one of the most influential of Eastern railroad men.

REPRESENTATIVE HENRY G. DANFORTH, of New York, member of the committee now investigating the steel business.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON.

CLARENCE S. DARROW, of Chicago, known throughout the country for his services as attorney in cases in which labor leaders are involved.

MISS CATHERINE L. HAMMERSLEY, of New York, to whom, it is said, W. Vincent Astor, son of John Jacob Astor, has been quite attentive.

GEORGE W. PERKINS,
Former partner of J. P. Morgan, one of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation.

DUCHESS OF ORLEANS,
Who would be Queen of France if the Royalists
were able to overturn the present government.

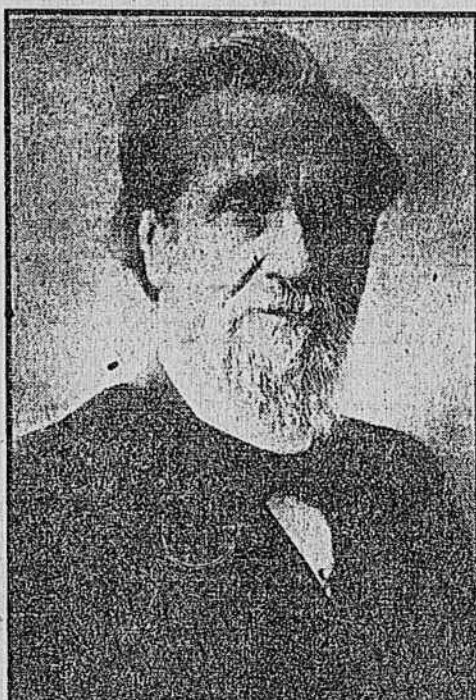

JAMES MCCREA,
President of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

MRS. PHILIP HICHBORN, Daughter-in-law of the late rear-admiral, who left her home in Washington with Horace Wylie, of the same city.

OSCAR G. MURRAY,
Chairman of the board of directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and former president.

ISAAC STEPHENSON,
United States Senator from Wisconsin, whose election will be investigated by the Legislature of the State.

THOMAS FORTUNE RYAN,
of the American Tobacco Company and many other enterprises of magnitude, was recently reported ill, and the rumor sent a shiver through financial quarters.

MRS. BRADLEY MARTIN, Formerly of New York, who will entertain largely in honor of King George's coronation.

HARRISON GRAY OTIS,
Owner of the Los Angeles Times.

MRS. LEWIS VERNON HARCOURT,
Wife of the British Secretary for the Colonies, Mrs.
Harcourt is a niece of J. Pierpont Morgan.

WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS,
the famous author and editor.
(Copyright, 1911, by American Press Association.)

MRS. ARTHUR SCOTT BURDEN, Known for her taste in dressing. She is seen wherever the smartest of New York's young women gather.

WOODROW WILSON,
Governor of New Jersey.